MORTALITY LOW IN PETERSBURG

Board of Health Report for Month Just Ended Shows
Forty-Two Deaths.

MRS. BOISSEAU IS NO MORE

Daughter of Captain Stell, a Valiant Soldier of the War of 1812.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 193 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., August 30.
The report of the Board of Health shows a total of 42 deaths in the city during the month ending August 24—whites, 15; colored, 27. Included in this number were four non-residents brought here for treatment, who died within the municipal limits.

Of the decedents eleven were infants under five years of age, and three had passed the age of eighty years.
The coroner certified to nine deaths, and seven deaths occurred at the Petersburg Hospital. The rate of mortality of the whole population was 16.50 per 1,000 per annum. Of the white population, 10.59, and of the colored, 24.92.

The mortality rate among the whites was lower than in many months. The civil condition of the decedents is reported as: Single, 23; married, 9; widowed, 10; males, 17; females, 25.
Seventeen bodies were brought to the city for burial, and fifteen bodies were removed from the city.

The number of births reported to the health office during the month was 60—whites, 27; colored, 33.

Death of Mrs. Boisseau.
Mrs. Lavina Stell Boisseau, wife of Thomas H. Boisseau, died this morning at 7:30 o'clock, at her residence in West Tabb Street, after a protracted illness. Mrs. Boisseau was the daughter and only child of Captain Chadrack Stell, of Dinwiddie county, a valiant soldier of the War of 1812, and of his wife, Tabitha Coleman, both of families prominent and honored in this section.

Mrs. Boisseau was about seventy years old, and was highly esteemed for her sterling worth and many fine womanly traits of character. She is survived by her husband and seven children—R. S. Boisseau, of Los Angeles, Cal.; C. J. and T. M. Boisseau, of Dinwiddie county; Mrs. A. M.
Pattillo, of Petersburg; Truman Garnett Boisseau, and Mrs. Ruth Olson O'Brien, of Philadelphia, and Hugh Merced Boisseau, master-at-arms at the Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md.

The body will be removed to the old family homestead, near Five Forks, in Dinwiddie, for burial, and where the funeral will take place at noon tomorrow.

License Violation Charge.
W. E. Dorsett, who was arrested in Richmond for the Petersburg authorities on Saturday, is charged with doing business in this city without having obtained a license therefor. It is said that Dorsett furnished dental goods here. The case will probably be heard in the Police Court on Wednesday.

White Man Fined for Snubbing.
James Boyd, a young white man, was fined $25 in the Police Court to-day for disorderly conduct on a street car on Washington Street Saturday night and assaulting the conductor, Leonard Wells. The latter testified that he had been snubbed in the shoulder by Boyd.

Charge of Forgery.
James Hill, negro, is under arrest on the charge of forgery. It is alleged that he forged the name of William L.
Zimmer, a prominent tobacconist, to an order on W. C. Malone, a shoe merchant, for goods. Mr. Malone refused to honor the order and notified the police. On further investigation it was developed that on Saturday Hill ob-kills germs, insects and bad odors. It makes hot weather bearable by attaining perfect household cleanliness.

MEN IN CITY COUNCIL

JOHN L. SATTERFIELD.

John L. Satterfield, of Marshall Ward, who will shortly retire from the Board of Aldermen in order to become City Sergeant, to which office he will be elected as the Democratic nominee on November 2, is one of the most vigorous members of the upper branch, having demonstrated during his long service that he is a born fighter, with the courage of his convictions. Since his entrance into public life the nominee for Sergeant has been known to his political friends as "Bill Nye" owing to his close facial resemblance to the great humorist. Mr. Satterfield defeated former Alderman N. Thomas Noyes for the Board a number of years ago, having been easily re-elected for each succeeding term. He has served with distinction upon some of the most important committees of the body.

He had scarcely more than declared against the evil of trifling away one's time in an automobile than there was the familiar and, at the time, immensely defiant, "Honk! Honk!" as some auto-driver gave the signal required by law in turning the Wilmington and Edenton Street corner, where the old church stands.

Lightning Destroys Barn on Parrott Farm, in Albemarle County.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., August 30.—During a severe storm which passed over the northern part of the county last evening lightning struck the main barn on the farm of Bernard T. Parrott, near Free Union. The structure, erected eighteen months ago at a cost of nearly $2,000, was entirely consumed, together with its contents, including farming implements and seventy-five tons of hay.

The flames spread to an old barn near by, but were checked by Mr. Parrott's son, E. T. Parrott, Jr., who jumped into the loft and tossed out hay that had caught fire. The hair on young Parrott's head was ignited. Had the second barn caught fire other valuable buildings would have been endangered.

Before the storm the thermometer went up to almost the century mark.
The wind blew a gale and then there was a heavy fall of hail, which did much damage to crops. Tobacco and corn were badly stripped.

tunate man was employed at Alta-attend a funeral. He leaves a wife and three children, three brothers and one sister, besides his parents, all of this place.

FLYING MACHINE CHARTER GRANTED

North Carolina Company Organized for Development of Late Aeroplane Invention.

SHOOTS ROOM-MATE FATALLY

Raleigh Fireman Exonerated of Guilty Intent in Scuffle Declared Friendly.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] RALEIGH, N. C., August 30.—The American Aeroplane Company, of Wilmington, N. C., procured a charter today for the manufacture of machines for the "navigation of the air or land."

The capital is $125,000, and the incorporators are among the most prominent business and professional men of Wilmington, including F. A. Bittinger, W. B. Cooper, C. H. Dick, C. W.
Kilgust, E. Bissinger, E. Pearce, C. C.
Platt, E. P. H. Strunk, J. H. Dreher, Russell Bellamy, Albert Schild, J. J.
Brick and David Palmgren.

The company is to develop the flying machine recently invented in Wilmington, the model of which is said to promise great things.

It has been recently published that the first flying machine of this pattern will be ready for public demonstration on the occasion of President Taft's visit to Wilmington while making his Western and Southern tour this fall.

Other charters are to the W. P.
Redman Co., Charlotte, capital $25,000, by J. W. Zimmerman and others, for commission and grocery business; the French Broad Flume and Lumber Co., Greenville, capital $50,000, by J. R.
Zachary and others, for the lumber manufacturing Co., Greensboro, capital $50,000, by C. I. Carlson, C. A. Hines and others, for controlling patents and manufacturing novelties of any kind.

Killed by His Roommate.
Thinking that he had emptied all the cartridges from his revolver, W. A.
Ashworth, mortally wounded his roommate, a young man, Daniel Jones, at Gayettesville last night.

Ashworth lives in Raleigh and is freeman on the Raleigh and Southport Railroad. The coroner, after investigating, exonerated Ashworth of guilty intent, so that he came on his regular run to Raleigh this morning.

The statement of the killing is that the two young men were engaged in a playful scuffle for the revolver, after it had, as they thought, been emptied.
Ashworth seized the gun and pointed it at his companion around the corner of the bed in their room. There was a report, and Jones received a mortal wound in his forehead.

Supreme Court Convened.
The Supreme Court convened this morning for the fall term, with all members of the court present, including the new associate justice, Hon. J.
S. Manning, of Durham, who succeeds Judge H. G. Connor, resigned, who was appointed judge of the United States Circuit and District Courts for the Eastern District of North Carolina to succeed the late Thomas H. Purnell.
To-day was devoted to the Supreme Court to the examination of sixty-two applicants for law license. First district court will be called for argument to-morrow.

Calla Automobile Stolen.
In appealing for serious, sober living on the part of Christian people, Rev.
Colin Hughes, archdeacon of the Diocese of North Carolina, Sunday morning at Christ Episcopal Church, discussed "automobile" with drinking, card-playing, dancing and other alleged sinful frivolities.

He had scarcely more than declared
the familiar and, at the time, immensely defiant, "Honk! Honk!" as some
auto-driver gave the signal required
Edenton Street corner, where the old church stands.

Lake a Cause of Litigation.
An interesting and notable development in the much-talked-of effort of the State officers to bring about the draining of Lake Mattamuskeet, Hyde county, is that the title of the State to probably the lake has been questioned by Colonel W. C. Rodman, man, who was for a number of years employed by the State Board of Education to investigate and protect the title of the State to its swamp land holdings.

The State board claims the entire lake, embracing about 60,000 acres, but Colonel Rodman claims half of this on the strength of an old grant to John Gray Blount, an ancestor, who acquired the title away back in colonial times.

Williams's clothing was found yesterday on the bank of the stream, and a search was being made for his body, when the supposed suicide appeared, alive and well.

Mitchell was one of those who had congregated where the clothing was found, and was mourning the supposed death of her suitor. She was so rejoiced at seeing him alive that she threw her arms around him, saying:

"Don't do it again! I'll go ask papa." Williams, it seems, had left an old suit of clothes on the bank of the stream, while he went to the home of a neighbor, a few miles away.

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., August 30.— In the Recorder's Court to-day forty-two charges were read against defendants charged with retailing spirituous nings, two former saloon-keepers, were convicted and each fined $500 and sentenced to work on the county roads for six months.

Both appealed to the Superior Court, bail for each being fixed at $1,000, which they gave.

gineer Cornell, of the Southbound

A Thoughtless Druggist.

ONLY a thoughtless druggist would offer a preparation without the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher when Castoria is called for; the "delicate, faint and flickering light" that joins baby's life to its devoted parents being too sacred, to the self-respecting druggist, to be trifled with.

For over thirty years Mr. Fletcher has given, and still gives, his personal attention to the preparation of Castoria. It has won the confidence of mothers and physicians everywhere—never harmed the tiniest babe. This cannot be said of Imitations, Counterfeits and the "Just-as-good" rot.

The thoughtless druggist only offers the counterfeit because of a few pennies more profit. Any new preparation can be but an experiment, and they are experiments—mere guess work—irrespective of what their sponsors may say for them.
It is experience of over thirty years, against wild and injudicious experiment.

Letters from Prominent Druggists addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

S. J. Briggs & Co., of Providence, R. I., say: "We have sold Fletcher's Castoria in our three stores for the past twenty years and consider it one of the best preparations on the market."

E. W. Stucky, of Indianapolis, Ind., says: "To say that we have recommended and sold your Castoria for years is the best endorsement we can possibly give any preparation. It is surely full of merit and worthy of recommendation."

Henry R. Gray, of Montreal, Que., says: "I would say that your Castoria for children is in large demand and that it gives general satisfaction.
Not being a secret nostrum many medical men order it when circumstances indicate the use of such a preparation."

W. G. Marshall, of Cleveland, Ohio, says: "We have found your Castoria to be not only one of the best sellers in the medicine market, but a preparation that gives almost universal satisfaction; in fact we cannot recall having had a single complaint from any of our customers who have used it."

Owens & Minor Drug Co., of Richmond, Va., says: "It is with pleasure that we lend our endorsement to Castoria, a preparation of proven merit. During our long experience in the drug business we have had abundant occasion to note the popularity of the genuine Fletcher's Castoria, which we unhesitatingly recommend."

Brannen & Anthony of Atlanta, Ga., say: "No doubt if we were called upon to state positively what medicine we had sold for the greatest length of time, the greatest number of bottles sold, and the most satisfactory preparation to us and also to the customer, we feel that we could safely and conscientiously say Fletcher's Castoria."

DEADLY CURRENT TEARS HIM APART

Awful Death of North Carolina Youth Trying to Get an Electric Shock.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., August 30.— Harvey Ritchie, twenty years old, climbed into one of the big transmission towers of the Southern Power Company at Albemarle County to-day to-day to ascertain if he could get a shock by touching the wires.

As the young man touched the deadly wires, his feet burst from the terrific current, that entered his body, and he dropped to the ground dead.

The tower is one of the series of steel structures employed by the Southern Power Company to transmit electrical energy from the Catawba River stations in this county, to the mills of the Piedmont sections, and the wires carry 50,000 volts.

was so seriously injured it is feared he will die. Scaffolding weakened,

CONVENTION SESSIONS END.

Albemarle County Sunday School Interests Show Prosperity.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., August 30.—The Albemarle County Sunday School Convention, which has been in session at Free Union Baptist Church, at Free Union, since Thursday, has adjourned to meet next year at Albemarle, in the southern part of the county.

The various reports showed an increase of interest, and of money raised for all purposes, including: Number of scholars, about 6,000; total collections, about $4,000; conversions for last twelve months, about 350.

The following were elected officers: Captain H. Clay Marchant, president; James D. Via and H. P. McCary, vice-presidents; Charles B. Stevens, secretary; Dr. Roy K. Flannagan, treasurer.

Freight Moved on Passenger Schedule

With the increasing demand on the railroads for transportation, due to the return of prosperity, each road is trying its best to make quick freight movements. The Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac has about gotten its freight moving on passenger schedule time. A carload of cattle was delivered to the Valentine Meat Juice Company Saturday, after having been less than three days on the way from Chicago. Of this time twelve hours were spent in Pittsburgh yards for rest, feed and water. It is part of the policy of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac to speed up all freight movements to as near passenger time as possible, and the study, aim and object of the freight department of this road is to rush every item, from the small package to the car and train-load lots, with all the speed possible.
